

Lava Beds Nat'l Monument Field Trip

The fourth and fifth grade classes will be taking an extended day fieldtrip to the Lava Beds National Monument near Tule Lake, California (just south of the border from Klamath Falls) on FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27TH. (FYI...This is also School Picture Day. Therefore, 4th and 5th grade students will be having their photos taken on picture retake day in October). At the monument we will be exploring volcanic caves. School fieldtrips are a privilege. In order to attend this fieldtrip, students must be caught up with ALL schoolwork. Your child will need to be at CPE at 7:30 a.m. for a bus departure of 7:50 a.m. We will return to CPE around 5:45 p.m.

Students need to bring the following:

- sack lunch/several healthy snacks for the entire day
- water bottle (water only, no carbonated drinks or sports drinks)
- flashlight (test before fieldtrip, please)

extra flashlight batteries

MANDATORY bicycle helmet for head protection in the caves

sturdy tennis shoes (no sandals or open toed shoes due to rough, sharp terrain)

warm clothes (coat, inexpensive poncho in case of rain or snow, long pants, gloves, hats)

Please note: electronic games

- players will be allowed for use on the bus, care and security are each student's and MP3 however, their responsibility.

Cost of the trip:

- $2.00 per student (no cost for Chaperones)
- Your payment of $2 needs to be in no later than Monday, September 23rd.
